

ST. JOHN'S UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW

LABOR RELATIONS AND EMPLOYMENT LAW SOCIETY

Elyssa Koepfel, President, 2008-2009
Ed McNamara, Co-Vice President, 2008-2009
Adam Sasiadek, Co-Vice President, 2008-2009
Devin Sullivan, Secretary, 2008-2009
Meghan Fox, Treasurer, 2008-2009
David L. Gregory, Faculty Advisor, 1982-Present

February 10, 2009

Dear Friends of the St. John's University Labor Relations and Employment Law Society:

You and your colleagues are cordially invited to attend our Spring 2009 Speaker Series. Thanks to the generosity of our alumni predecessors, these programs are free of charge and open to the entire community. Seating is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis.

February 23, 2009, Monday, 6:30 PM, Room 2M-08, Robert Guastella, "Union Democracy Initiatives and the Teamsters Union."

March 2, 2009, Monday, 6:30 PM, Room 2M-08, Rev. James Maher, C.M., Vice President, St. John's University, will discuss "Corporate Social Responsibility and Global Labor Development: Modern Historical Issues and Trends, A Solution-Based Approach."

March 10, 2009, Tuesday, 5:30 PM, Private Dining Room Ground Floor, "A Conversation with Jon Hiatt, General Counsel of the AFL-CIO, and Denis Hughes, President, New York State AFL-CIO, "The Future of Labor"

March 11, 2009, Wednesday, 6:30, Room 1-15: Evan Barouh '87, Office of the Solicitor, U.S. Department of Labor, will discuss Overtime Pay, Minimum Wage, and the Fair Labor Standards Act

April 1, 2009, Wednesday, 6:30 PM, Room 1-15: Troy Rosasco '89, Partner, Turley, Redmond, and Rosasco will discuss current Worker's Compensation issues

April 22, 2009, Wednesday, 6:30 PM, Room 1-15: Dr. Eli N. Avila '03 will discuss current Safety and Health work-related issues, with special reference to 9/11 WTC first responders.

